Mission Afresh: Our place in God's Mission

During Lent we will be gathering on Sunday afternoons from 4:00 to 6:00pm at Ponders End Methodist Church for an afternoon of input and discussion led by the Revd Dr Valentin Dedji and the Revd Dr Jonathan Dean. ANNUAL REPORTS

Do you lead a church group?

It is now time to produce a report about that group's activities during the past year, ready for distribution ahead of the Annual Church Meeting.

Wearing my new new Church Council Secretary hat, I would be grateful to receive all reports by 29th February, either via email to katharinefd@aol.com or handwritten.

If you have any queries, please let me know.

Saturday Coffee Bar

Our regular Saturday morning coffee bar is now open again from 10.00 to 12.30. It is very popular with the ballet and tap children and their parents, but is open to all to come and enjoy a friendly cup of tea or coffee and cake.

We would also welcome volunteers to help us serving our customers, or washing up. If you can help for an hour or so on a Saturday morning this term, please sign your name on the list in the Welcome Area, or just turn up on the day. Either as a customer, or helper, you can be sure of a warm welcome!

SOUTHGATE LOOKING FORWARD:

Dreams, hopes, and wishes

Please do have a look at the silver noticeboard at the back of the church and you'll see 3 large sheets of the responses made by congregation members during November and December 2019. Some A4 copies are also available at the back of church.

It's not too late to add a suggestion or make a comment. We would particularly welcome any thoughts by those who've joined us from Winchmore Hill. What can we learn from your experience?

The deadline for these additional suggestions/ thoughts/ reflections is today 16th February.

Anyone and everyone interested in discussing and planning our way ahead is welcome to attend the open meeting of the Church Council on Wednesday 19th February, 7.30pm, in the Welcome Area.

Palm crosses and Ash Wednesday

I wonder whether, like me, you have a number of palm crosses from previous years stuck behind pictures or lying around various places in your home. Well, I need them so that they can be burnt and reduced to ash. Those ashes will then be used in our Circuit Ash Wednesday Service here at Southgate on 26th February at 7.30pm.

During this service we acknowledge before God and one another our own mixed motives and confused lives and in true humility, repentance, and vulnerability cast ourselves on the mercy of God as we are marked on our foreheads with the sign of the cross in ash – a sign of our repentance and a symbol of our mortality.

So please bring your palm crosses to church any Sunday up to and including 23rd February and leave them in the envelope marked PALM CROSSES near the Visitors' Book at the back of the church. And then join with friends from across the circuit to mark the start of our Lenten journey with Christ on Wednesday 26th February at 7.30pm.

Thank you.

Julia

Trinity Church, Enfield Walking Group

For many years, Trinity Church, Enfield has organised a variety of walks from March to October.

Details of the first walk of the year – Saturday 14th March are as follows:

Bushey to Rickmansworth 6 miles

The walk follows a disused railway line with scenic views and includes two nature reserves which can be explored along the way. All travel is covered by the freedom pass. Be aware that there are no places to eat en route, so a packed lunch is necessary.

The dates of the walks for the remainder of the year are:

Saturday 2nd May

Saturday 20th June

Wednesday evening 22nd July

Saturday 8th August

A mystery - Jam in the cupboard!

Does anyone know about the box of home-made jams which have been put into a cupboard in the Raikes Kitchen?

If you do know where or from whom they have come, and what or who they are for, would you please see Ginny or give her a call on 020 8882 8688.

A Cup of Coffee with ...

Last year we started asking members of the congregation to share something about themselves with us. Recently we resumed with Annette Clift. Perhaps you would like to share with us some of your treasured moments or something you are your passionate about, then have a cup of coffee with Merline.

Here are some of the questions you might be asked:

Who would you like to have a cup of coffee with?

The best biscuit to dunk in tea/coffee?

What made you join Southgate Methodist Church?

What person has inspired you?

What is your most treasured possession?

Has any event changed or altered your life?

The temptation you wish you could resist?

The happiest moment you will cherish forever?

The worse job you have ever done?

How do you relax?

The piece of wisdom you would pass on to a child?

Please see me, if you are interested. If no one offers I will choose someone.
